

Student Law Clerk for Indian Law Solo Practice

Christine Williams, Tribal Court Judge, Attorney and Consultant, is looking for a part-time, independent contractor, law student clerk to assist with tribal court development and cultural resources projects. Assistance is needed starting immediately to work remotely, on a part-time, project basis through the end of the 2021 school year. Hourly compensation will depend on experience. Maximum expected hourly commitment of ten hours per week. No first-year students please. Send letters of interest to christine@williamsjd.com

Website: <http://www.williamsjd.com/>