JOB INFORMATION:

The Civil Litigation Division of the San Diego City Attorney's Office is seeking applications from attorneys who are interested in a position as a Deputy City Attorney in the General Litigation Unit. This position reports directly to the Chief Deputy City Attorney, and is responsible for a broad range of duties including prosecuting or defending civil lawsuits in which the City is a party.

Ideal candidate will have at least 5 years of litigation experience in municipal law and preparing cases for hearings and trials in all courts or can otherwise demonstrate the skills necessary for this position. Experience with all pretrial phases of litigation including discovery, depositions of parties and experts, trial preparation, and strong research, legal writing and oral presentation skills will be considered for the position. Applicants must have been lead counsel in 1 or more jury trials.

EXAMPLE OF DUTIES:

Duties for the General Litigation Unit position may include defending the City in the following types of cases:

- Police false arrest and excessive force.
- Personal injury, property damage, dangerous conditions, and motor vehicle accidents.
- Constitutional claims including legal challenges to City ordinances, resolutions and policies Cases challenging the City's compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, Brown Act, and the California Public Records Act.
- Handling matters pertaining to writs.
- Preparing pleadings for trials, hearings, discovery and other legal proceedings.
- Representing the City and its officers and employees in their official capacities in trial.
- Perform other work as assigned.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

Applicants are required to:

- Be an active member in good standing with the State Bar of California and if selected for the position, must promptly apply for admission to the United States District Court for the Southern District of California, if not already admitted to that court.
- Submit a cover letter and current resume along with a writing sample (no more than 5 pages) that demonstrate their legal writing skills and reflect their own original work product. Applicants should avoid submitting template form documents and documents heavily edited by others.

Attorneys in this position must be able to travel to locations outside the office for court hearings, depositions, or meetings; therefore, possession of a valid California Class C driver's license and personal vehicle or other means to travel are required. Successful applicants must pass a criminal background and reference checks. Employment is contingent upon completion of the above-mentioned process.
